

Gilda's Club

Gilda's Club is a free program and community of children, adults, families, and friends who have been impacted by cancer or have experienced the death of a loved one from any cause, designed to support emotional health.

Local Impact of Gilda's Club

The free cancer and grief support programs are made possible to residents of Lowell and surrounding communities by the Pink Arrow Project, Lowell Community Wellness and Lowell Senior Neighbors.

Gilda's Club offers Alternating biweekly grief and cancer support groups for all ages, Tough Stuff Program with 5th grade classrooms and Grief Support groups at local middle/high schools

The Gilda's Club Lowell Clubhouse is located at 314 South Hudson Street in Lowell, Michigan. In Person and Virtual support groups are available at this time
